

Good Old Days Writers Guidelines

2022-2023

Dear Contributor,

Thank you for your interest in contributing material to Good Old Days magazine. Good Old Days tells the real stories of the people who lived and grew up in “the Good Old Days” (about 1935–1970). We like stories to sound informal and conversational, as if you’re sitting around the kitchen table reminiscing with your friends and family. However, we are open to any way you choose to write your story, as long as it is true and falls within our targeted period of time. We accept seasonal stories year-round, from holidays to harvest. Most of our writers are not professionals. We prefer the author’s individual voice, warmth, humor and honesty over technical ability. Successful stories tend to stick with one subject or plot (i.e., “how my brother and I got caught skipping school one day and faced the consequences,” “my favorite Christmas gift,” “my graduation dress,” etc.), and are not simply descriptions of a time or place (ex. “life on the farm” or “growing up in the 1950s”). Some stories are presented “as told by” the person who actually had the experience, but we do not accept fictional manuscripts.

These regular departments are in each issue and open to outside submissions:

- Good Old Days on Wheels

In this department we feature transportation-related articles. You may relate funny stories of learning to drive, your first car, trips by train, a coveted bicycle, city trolley rides, etc. Photos are required for this feature! (Photocopies or duplicate copies- please do not send original photos with submission)

- Rewind

This two-page spread offers a visual collage of photos, stories, old advertisements, quotes (ex. Things My Parents Used to Say) and other reader-submitted gems. Consult the most recent version of Good Old Days to see the specific submissions we are currently requesting.

- Bits & Pieces

Brief (100–300-word) memories are presented on this two-page spread. Any nostalgic story topic will be considered; photos are appreciated and encouraged.

- Picture This

Readers may submit a single nostalgic photograph with a short, descriptive caption.

- Special Features

We also publish an occasional biography, as well as historical stories on memorable events, fads, antiques, fashion, sports, music, literature, entertainment, etc. While this feature is often written by assigned columnists, we will consider other writers as well.

SUBMISSIONS GUIDELINES

- Manuscripts should be typed (preferably double-spaced) with the author’s name, address, phone number, email address, and word count in the upper left-hand corner. Our preferred word length is 500–1,000 words.
- Submissions must be previously unpublished. We do not accept simultaneous submissions. This means that you should only submit your story to us, and not to other publishers at the same time.
- Please submit one manuscript at a time. Manuscripts should be a copy, not the original. Send manuscripts via email (our preferred form) to (Editor@GoodOldDaysMagazine.com) or by postal mail to Good Old Days Submissions, 306 E. Parr Rd., Berne, IN 46711. We will contact you only if we decide to accept your manuscript.

ALWAYS include where the story took place (city, town, village or region and state) and the year the story took place. We have returned a lot of good stories that did not include this information. Readers want the connection of knowing when and where a story took place.

PHOTOS

- Good, clear, interesting photos are an advantage when we consider your submission. Please indicate with your submission whether or not photos are available. You may include photocopies or duplicates of your photos with your manuscript, but please do not include your originals. If we need the originals or photographic copies, we will ask for them. While we can accept computer scanned photographs, they must be scanned at 300 dpi resolution. Include your name, address and story title on the backs of all photos. Manuscripts should include captions for your photos.
- We understand that you may not have a picture of the exact event. However, pictures that may illustrate the story may also include pictures of the subject(s) from around the time of the story. Don't forget to add the details of your photo. Please include a photo caption with your pictures that lets us know who is in the photograph and where they are located in the photo as well as the time period and place that the photo was taken (if it is known).

CONTRACTS, RIGHTS AND PAYMENT

- If your article is accepted for publication, you will receive a contract agreement with a payment offer and information about which issue of the magazine your article is scheduled to appear. You will also be required to fill out a W9 form to receive payment.
- We prefer to buy all rights, but will negotiate with you on first or one-time rights. If you cannot offer all rights, you should specify the type of rights you are offering when submitting your manuscript.
- If you would like a sample copy of our magazine, please send $2.00 and a self-addressed stamped manila envelope to: Good Old Days Sample Copy, 306 E. Parr Rd., Berne, IN 46711.

We receive more than 200 manuscripts a month and can only offer contracts to a limited number. Therefore, we must return a lot of good stories. The mark of a good freelance writer is persistence; be sure to keep trying! Thanks for your interest in Good Old Days magazine.

Sincerely,
Kathy Lynch
